Draft Terms of Reference – Social Inclusion Advisory Committee

1. Role
Central Coast Council has an adopted Community Strategic Plan and Delivery Plan that will shape all activities and projects over the next four years. Council’s Advisory Groups are an important mechanism for consultation, advice and feedback to Council staff on implementation and review of the Community Strategic Plan.

The role of the Social Inclusion Advisory Committee is to identify, examine, and formulate a collective response to the various social issues that affect the Central Coast community.

2. Responsibilities
The Advisory Group is responsible for providing advice and feedback to Council on:

- Social issues that affect the Central Coast community.
- Approaches to address key social issues identified in the Community Strategic Plan.

3. Membership, Voting and Quorum.

Membership
- No less than one Councillor appointed for the term of Council
- Six community representatives (voting members)

Council is seeking broad stakeholder representation for this committee, with the desired blend providing a mix of representatives with strategic insight through practical experience in localised community programs and initiatives. Community representatives shall be appointed by resolution of Council following advertisement for nominations.

Nominations are to be in writing and will be circulated in full to Councillors for evaluation and consideration. The Advisory Group is not involved in the evaluation or selection process, it is a matter for Council.

The staff holding the following Central Coast Council positions may attend Advisory Group meetings:

- Director Connected Communities (or their delegate)
- Unit Manager Community Partnerships
- Section Manager Community Planning and Services
- Section Manager Community and Cultural Development

Council officers will provide professional advice and administrative support. Employees of the Council are not subject to the direction of the Advisory Group or any members of it. Staff attendance is at the discretion of the Chief Executive Officer.
Draft Terms of Reference – Social Inclusion Advisory Committee

Non-staff members are appointed to the Advisory Group are appointed for the remainder of the current Council term, although membership can be altered at any time by a resolution of Council.

Membership can be withdrawn by resolution of Council.

If a member misses three consecutive meetings without apology, their membership may be withdrawn and their position deemed vacant.

Casual Vacancy

A casual vacancy is caused by the resignation or death of a member or the withdrawal of membership. To fill a casual vacancy:

- The Advisory Group staff contact will report the vacancy to the Advisory Group and then to the next available Council meeting.
- If the member was nominated as a representative of an organisation, it will be recommended that the organisation be invited to nominate a replacement member.
- If the member was nominated as an individual, the original expressions of interest will be reviewed to identify an appropriate replacement member.
- Where there are no appropriate alternate nominations, expressions of interest will be called for to replace the member.
- Where the vacancy occurs within nine months of the end of the term of the Advisory Group the vacancy will not be filled.

Chairperson

The Chairperson is a Councillor. The Chairperson is to have precedence at the meeting and shall determine the order of proceedings, generally as set out in the Agenda.

Where the Mayor is appointed to be a delegate to an Advisory Group it is not necessary that the Mayor be the Chairperson.

Convenor

A Central Coast Council staff position shall be nominated as convenor by the Chief Executive Officer. They will be a staff member responsible for coordinating the preparation of agendas, invitations and minutes (meeting records).

The Director Connected Communities (or their delegate) shall be the convenor of the Central Coast Social Inclusion Advisory Committee.
Draft Terms of Reference – Social Inclusion Advisory Committee

Voting

No formal voting rules apply.

As the Advisory Group has an advisory role, its recommendations are to be made by consensus. Where consensus cannot be reached, a vote may be taken at the request of the Chairperson. The vote will be carried by a majority of voting members. The meeting record would reflect this process.

Council is the decision making body and the Advisory Group provides recommendations for consideration.

The Advisory Group may agree to allow participation in meetings through conference calls and other technology. As no formal voting rules apply, there is no proxy voting.

Quorum

The Quorum for a meeting is half the Advisory Group voting membership plus one and must include at least one Councillor.

However the Chairperson shall use their discretion to determine if a meeting should be postponed due to insufficient members being able to attend.

4. Meetings

- Meetings are held bi-monthly
- The Chairperson has the authority to call additional meetings
- The agenda and meeting papers will be distributed to members at least three days prior to the meeting
- Meetings will be recorded by the taking of minutes (meeting record) – the minutes will document agreed outcomes and will not record discussions.

5. Communications and reporting

The agendas and meeting records of the Advisory Group will be stored as a permanent record of Council. All agendas and meeting records will be published on Council’s website.

Where the Advisory Group recommends an action that is outside the delegation of staff to determine, a report will be provided to Council.

Staff will prepare the report that recommends that Council note the meeting record of the Advisory Group. Reporting of Advisory Group recommendations to Council will be reported as Committee Recommendations without change. Staff will also provide professional commentary on the Group’s recommendation and provide a staff recommendation which may or may not align to that of the Group.

Council may then, at its discretion, resolve to adopt some or all of the Advisory Group’s recommendations.
Draft Terms of Reference – Social Inclusion Advisory Committee

Where the Advisory Group has not recommended an action, the meeting record will be reported to Council as an Information Report only.

6. Conduct

Code of Conduct training will be provided to all Advisory Group members, and must be completed prior to attending a meeting of the Advisory Group.

Each member of the Advisory Group will be provided with Council’s adopted Code of Conduct and the Conduct of members is expected to be consistent with the principles outlined in the Code of Conduct.

For the avoidance of doubt, members of the Advisory Group are not permitted to speak to the media or make representations on social media on behalf of the Advisory Group or Council unless approved by Council.
