

Library Book Club FAQs

Frequently asked questions

Why should I join a Book Club?

Library Service Book Clubs are a great way to share your love of reading with friends and to discover new authors and exciting books. They foster stimulating conversation and debate, and they encourage community connectedness.

About Book Clubs

How do I register my Book Club with the Library?

Book Club membership is open to all Central Coast Library Service members.

Joining is easy and each book club group pays an annual membership fee, completes a registration form for the group and presents receipt for payment and the registration form to staff in any of our library branches for processing.

How many people can I have in my Book Club group?

Each Book Club can determine the maximum number of members, keeping in mind that each Book Club Box only provides resources for up to 10 individuals.

What if my Book Club has more than 10 members?

Should a book club wish to have more than 10 members, they are responsible for sourcing additional copies of the books. Central Coast

Library Service will attempt to assist you to locate library copies of the book if available

How often should we meet?

Start out with once a month. Any longer than that and you may find members losing interest. After a while you will know what works well for your Book Club.

Does my Book Club need to have a Leader?

Yes, each registered Book Club requires a Coordinator who will receive all communications in relation to Book Clubs.

What does the Book Club Coordinator do?

Book Club Coordinators are responsible for:

- Collection and payment of group membership fees.
- Ensuring all members agree to the terms of use for the Library Service Book Club membership.
- Bringing Book Club members together to make title selections for the following 6 months.

Where can my Book Club meet?

As Book Clubs are informal gatherings, you can meet and utilise Library Service Book Club resources in a member's home, restaurant, café or in one of our library branches.
