GOSFORD REGIONAL GALLERY AND EDOGAWA GARDENS

SCHOOLS GUIDED TOUR FORM

Information

This booking form is for school groups.

Please reference the group guided tour form if you are not an educational facility.

Tours take approximately 45 minutes to 1 hour or can be tailored to be shorter if an activity is accompanying the tour. Tours can be scheduled any week day (except facility closure) between 9.30am and 3pm. Tours can be of the Gardens, the gallery or both.

About the Gallery Tours

Explore Gosford Regional Gallery with our gallery guides and discover insights into artists, works of art and exhibitions. Our dedicated team of volunteer guides have trained in visitor experience, art history and educational guiding methods. They are passionate about visual arts and can cater to all school group levels.

About the Garden Tours

The Garden tours are designed to explain the key features of the Japanese garden and the philosophy and principles behind it. This is an excellent way to engage with units on Asian Cultures. They include an opportunity to feed the fish.

Supervision of Students

Students will be split into Groups of 15 -20, Gallery staff will advise how many Groups, schools must provide at least one supervising adult/teacher per group. It is preferable to have two per group for early primary school groups stage 1 – 2.

Information you need to know:

Bookings are essential and must be submitted at least two weeks in advance.

Please arrive 20 minutes before commencement of tour.

Gallery guides will meet you at the entry to the facility.
